CONGRESS MAY ADJOURN IN MAY OR EARLIER

CHIEF WORK OF SESSION NOW ACCOMPLISHED

ADOPTION OF WORLD COURT RESOLUTION PASSAGE OF TAX BILL

APPROPRIATION MEASURES ARE ALSO VIRTUALLY COMPLETED

By PAUL R. MALLON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Feb. 17.—Republican leaders in both houses of congress are discussing plans for adjournment the first part of May or earlier.

The chief business of the session, adoption of the world court resolution, passage of the tax bill and appropriation measures, now is virtually completed and there is strong sentiment, encouraged from the White House for cutting short the session.

Farm relief, foreign debts, Muscle Shoals and some other matters of relative importance remain to be acted upon, but the situation is such that full chance can be offered to proponents of each issue to try for action before adjournment.

The house has concluded half the appropriation bills and they can be cleaned up in the senate in a few days.

Advocates of farm relief are no nearer agreement than they have been for the last few years and unless some miraculous consolidation of opinion develops it appears that only a co-operative marketing bill sanctioned by the administration can be passed. Muscle Shoals will be brought up in the senate next Monday.

Plans are not completed, but arrangements are being made with a view to adjourning much earlier than June 10, the date first set.

PROBE ALLEGED DISLOYALTY OF AIR SERVICE MEN

Washington, Feb. 17.—(UP)—The investigation of alleged disloyalty of air service officers was completed today by Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of air service, and forwarded to Secretary fo War Davis.

The inquiry was ordered by Davis when it was reported to him that some officers were connected with an unauthorized attempt to secure public support for the Patrick separate air corps proposal before congress.

Washington, Feb. 17.—(UP)—The war department's inquiry into alleged disloyalty of air service officers ended today with a decision to reprimand Major H. H. Arnold and Major H. A. Darque of air service headquarters here, for alleged attempts to influence legislation before congress in a manner objectionable to the department.

Captain John Montgomery, reserve officer, was found to be chiefly responsible for the objectionable activities but no action is contemplated against him because he is not on active duty.

Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the air service, who conducted the investigation on orders of Secretary of War Davis denied in a formal statement that the inquiry was aimed indirectly at him, because of departmental displeasure over his congressional testimony favoring a separate air corps.

BESSEMER BLACKSMITH LEGISLATOR OBJECTS TO WORLD COURT

Lansing, Mich., Feb. 17.—(UP)—A resolution to place a special session of the Michigan state legislature on record as opposed to United States entry into the world court, has been referred to a committee by a vote of 81 to 11.

John Holland, a blacksmith of Bessemer, upper peninsula representative, who introduced the resolution declared:

"We do not want foreign emperors, dukes and counts to come over here and tell us what to do."

Fairmont, Minn., Feb. 17.—(UP)—The "canned heat" business here has become, even with the coal strike considered, an overly thriving and suspicious trade, according to officials.

Following discovery of four young Fairmont men burning "canned heat" and as a consequence decidedly "lit," Sheriff W. S. Carver announced he would ask the prohibition department to regulate its sale.

The fire is believed to have originated from a defective chimney.

Neighbors were unaware of the fire until Teal with both arms broken and clothes afire escaped from the burning structure and aroused them. A volunteer fire squad was organized and aid summoned from Cobleskill, but owing to the condition of the roads the firemen did not arrive until the building was consumed.

VIOLENCE MAY CONTINUE AT EVANSVILLE

DOZEN MINERS INJURED IN THE COAL MINING DISTRICT

ONE OF MEN IS NEAR DEATH FROM A STAB WOUND

Evansville, Ind., Feb. 17.—(UP)—Renewed violence was momentarily feared today in the coal mining district of southwestern Indiana, where a dozen miners were injured in rioting yesterday.

One of the injured men, Lee Corbett, a non-union miner, is near death from stab wounds, in an Evansville hospital.

The rioting occurred at isolated mines in Warrick county, when union miners attempted to force non-union workers to join the union or quit work.

The unionization crusade was expected to center today on mines in the vicinity of Evansville and every precaution was taken to guard against bloodshed.

Fifty picked policemen, armed with riot guns and tear bombs, stood guard at the entrance to the Sunnyside mine, within the city limits of Evansville.

It was reported to authorities that 100 or more union men were ready to march on Sunnyside mine to close it down.

The Sunnyside mine has operated on a non-union basis for months in defiance of the demads of union leaders that it operate on the wage scale of the Jacksonville agreement.

Local authorities were in close touch with William Kershner, however, adjutant general of the Indiana national guard. Kershner, however, will make no move toward sending troops unless the situation gets out of hand.

Scranton, Pa., Feb. 17.—Anthracite coal mining, suspended since the coal strike was called September 1, will be resumed throughout the anthracite distrct of Pennsylvania tomorrow morning.

Ratification by the tri-district convention of the United Mine Workers of the agreement made with the mine owners by John L. Lewis and his associates brought the official end to the strike.

No sooner had the agreement been ratified than word went out to the miners that when the mine whistles blew tomorrow morning they are to answer.

BELIEVE PRAYER STEMMED WAVE OF FOREST FIRE

WIND SHIFTED, SAVING LIVES OF 100 MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN

VICTORIA, N. S. W., DEATH TOLL NOW LISTED AT THIRTY-ONE

By A W. V. KING
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Sydney, N. S. W., Feb. 17.—One hundred men, women and children, of what was once the town of Noojee, believed today that prayer had saved their lives when the Victoria forest fires swept down upon the hamlet.

They had seen the scattered dwellings disappear until all but one was gone. This they turned into a church and there during the night as pine smoke swept in they prayed.

Of a sudden the wind shifted and this last refuge was safe with its little congregation.

This is only one of the dramatic incidents, which continue to be reported as the Victoria death toll is listed at 31 and subscriptions for aid of homeless and suffering are being raised.

Yet another is the story of a girl of 16, trapped in the fire, who cast herself upon the bodies of her two younger sisters, shielding them though she herself was seriously burned.

FAIR VERA LANGUISHES AT ELLIS ISLAND

LABOR DEPARTMENT CONTINUES WRESTLING WITH PROBLEM OF EXCLUSION

SHALL SHE BE CONSIDERED UNDESIRABLE OR ADMITTED AS VISITOR?

By JOSEPH S. WASNY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Feb. 17. — While Vera, Countess of Cathcart, languishes at Ellis Island, officials of the labor department continued to struggle with the problem of whether the titled Englishwoman should be excluded as an undesirable or admitted to the country for a visit.

Secretary of Labor Davis is expected to rule on the unusual case before he leaves for Florida today, but his decision may not be made public for a few days. He has conferred with Attorney General Sargent on the legal questions involved and has the immigration board of review recommendations to guide him.

Faced with the fact that the countess may appeal her case to the United States district court of New York and secure a writ of habeas corpus that may lead to her being released on bond, Davis is reviewing the situation with the utmost care. All legal advisers of the labor department have rendered decisions on the matter.

PRES. COOLIDGE NURSES COLD AT WHITE HOUSE

Washington, Feb. 17.—(UP)—President Coolidge early today cancelled his engagements and retired to the White House to nurse a cold.

The president awoke this morning feeling badly but nevertheless went to the executive office and received callers until about 11 a. m. when Major James W. Coupal, his personal physician, advised him to give up work for the day and retire.

The president became indisposed last evening and was forced to remain away from the dinner given by Secretary of War Davis and Mrs. Davis in his honor. Mrs. Coolidge attended alone.

The president periodically suffers from an irritation known as "rose fever" but Coupal said he did not believe his present cold had any connection with it.

Mr. Coolidge has enjoyed the best of health since occupying the White House, having gained weight and generally maintained himself on a high level of physical efficiency.

PLANET MARS MAY HAVE LIFE SAY SCIENTISTS

PAPERS READ BY E. C. SLIPPER AND DR. C. O. LAMPLAND

AT CONVENTION OF AMERICAN ASSOCIATION FOR ADVANCEMENT OF SCIENCE

By DAVID DIETZ
(Written by the United Press)

Phoenix, Ariz., Feb. 17.—Conditions on the planet Mars are such as to make it reasonable to suppose that life such as we know it, could exist on Mars, declared E. C. Slipper, and Dr. C. O. Lampland of the Lowell Observatory at Flagstaff, Ariz., in papers presented today before the convention of the Southwest Section of the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

The papers represented the latest work done at the Flagstaff observatory, founded in 1894.

The planet Mars has been studied by this observatory continuously since the institution was established.

Many astronomers, notably those at the Mount Wilson observatory at Pasadena, Calif., do not think Mars has conditions that would support life.

The Flagstaff astronomers, however, give the following reasons for their position:

1. There is evidence that Mars has an atmosphere and that it contains both oxygen and water vapor.

2. Clouds and dust are observed in the Martian atmosphere.

3. Polar caps on Mars which are white behave just as they would if they were formed of ice and snow, growing smaller as the Martian summer advances and growing larger again as winter comes on.

4. Observation of the planet's surface both by visual and photographic means shows the fine network structure of the so-called canals.

It was Dr. Lowell's theory that these were strips of vegetation along waterways.

5. While Mars is farther than the earth from the sun, and therefore receives less light and heat from the sun, it holds on to more of what it does receive than does the earth. Measurements indicate that Mars absorbs more of the energy it gets from the sun and reflects away less of it than does the earth.

6. Measurements of the heat radiations given out by Mars indicate that the temperature in places raises at times to between 60 and 80 degrees Fahrenheit.

CALLS CHICAGO CENTER OF A 'POOL OF POWER'

Chicago, Feb. 17.—(UP)—Chicago has become the center of a "pool of power" that extends through interconnecting stations from the upper peninsula of Michigan on the north into Virginia on the south, Samuel Insull, the nation's leading utility baron, said in the annual report of the Commonwealth Edison company.

"No longer can Chicago compute its electrical production and requirements on a purely local basis," he said, "but we must take into consideration the states of Michigan, Wisconsin, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky and Virginia."

The report stated that the Commonwealth Edison company capacity is 886,000 kilowatts. The net income last year was $10,766,786. This was approximately $11.95 a share on the average capital stock.

FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION TO CALL FOR RECORDS

HAS POWER TO SO INVESTIGATE ALUMINUM COMPANY OF AMERICA

SEEKS TO PROVE COMPANY GUILTY OF MONOPOLIZING PRACTICES

Pittsburgh, Pa., Feb. 17.—(UP)—The federal trade commission, having won a victory in establishing that it has the means of compelling the Aluminum Company of America to produce records requested, today began the fourth day of its investigation of the company's business methods. The commission seeks to prove that the organization controlled by the Mellon interests, is guilty of monopolizing practices and unfair competition.

Photostatic copies of about 50 letters and telegrams were introduced as exhibits, after attorneys for the corporation termed such procedure outrageous.

The objections were recorded on the documents. None of them are available to the public, but it was admitted they contained trade secrets.

There will be no session of the hearing tomorrow due to the annual meeting of the board of directors of the Aluminum Company at its offices in Pittsburgh.

INTERNATIONAL WHEAT POOL IS ORGANIZED

3 LEADING WHEAT COUNTRIES HAVE REPRESENTATIVES AT ST. PAUL

EXPECT TO MARKET PRODUCT SIMILAR TO CANADIAN POOLS

St. Paul, Feb. 17—(UP)—The international conference of wheat pools, holding its second day's session here with representatives from three leading wheat countries present, today became a permanent organization with plans definitely laid for regular meetings.

With this dvelopment, leaders in the pooling movement looked confidently forward to a time when the bulk of the world's wheat will be marketed directly by producers organized into pools similar to those now operating in Canada.

For the present, however, the organization is not ambitious to attempt that eventuality, leaders said. One of the most important functions to be performed immediately will be to obtain accurate information regarding crops, available grain supplies and trade demand from all the wheat producing countries of the world.

"The need of such a source of information was emphasized last fall and early winter when the farmers of the United States and Canada and their marketing organizations were unable to obtain correct statistics on crop conditions in the Argentine and the probable export surplus," W. H. Frederick, a Minnesota delegate, explained.

"We have now taken definite, forward looking steps to extend the benefits of pool marketing of wheat to every country in the world," Frederick said, discussing the accomplishments of the conference so far. "Our program not only calls for perpetuation of this conference and co-ordination of present pools, but for extension of the pooling system to countries not now enjoying its benefits."

Frederick cited Argentine as an example. He said the conference hopes to expand its activities until the bulk of the wheat raised in the world is distributed through the agency of the pools. About 75 delegates attended the day's session for exchange of information on methods of the pools represented.

DRYS OF THE HOUSE BEGIN COUNTER ATTACK

DEMAND A GENERAL INQUIRY INTO RESULTS OF PROHIBITION

REP. HUDSON SAYS PEOPLE ARE ENTITLED TO HONEST SURVEY

By WILLIAM J. McEVOY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Feb. 17.—Disturbed by the demand of Representative Britten, republican, Illinois, for a searching inquiry into the activities of the Anti-Saloon league, drys in the house today began pressing for a general inquiry into the results of prohibition.

In a letter to Chairman Snell of the rules committee, Representative Hudson, republican, Michigan, chairman of the alcoholic liquor traffic committee, requested action on his resolution providing for a probe of prohibition by his committee which is made up of dry members.

Hudson told Snell that his inquiry would steer clear of organizations, such as the Anti-Saloon league and the Association against the Prohibition Amendment for testimony and information on the results of the prohibition law. He suggested, however, that his resolution could be amended to include inquiry into the activities of wet and dry organizations.

"My resolution," Hudson wrote, asks for authority to make a complete and comprehensive survey of matters pertaining to the present status of the alcoholic liquor traffic, both legal and illegal, that are now before the country.

"The propaganda being placed before the people is of such unauthentic character that there is a demand heard from all sides that something be given the nation in reference to the present status operation of the amendment.

"The people of the United States are entitled to an honest survey of the situation, into which they are placing large sums of money for enforcement."

Britten's resolution proposing an investigation of the Anti-Saloon league is also before the rules committee. He would have the probe conducted by the special joint committee.

TO INVESTIGATE THE RESULTS OF PROHIBITION

Washington, Feb. 17.—Wets and drys in the house today joined on a plan for investigating the results of prohibition after six years of operation.

Representative Coller, New York, democrat, introduced a bill for an inquiry into every phase of dry enforcement before a presidential commission and revealed that Representative Upshaw, Georgia, democrat, dry leader, and Representative Hill, Maryland, republican wet champion, approved his plan.

Coller proposed appointment by the president of a commission required to hold hearings in various parts of the country to ascertain public sentiment and then recommend what percentage of alcoholic content might be set as intoxicating in fact

Operations of the commission would be under the assistant secretary of the treasury. Persons who have affiliations with wet or dry organizations would be ineligible for membership under the bill.

Coller defined the scope of the bill as follows:

"The effect of prohibition upon business, industry and labor, including its influence upon social and moral conditions in the various communities throughout the states, together with its effect upon family relations, crime, drug addiction, public attitude toward all law and increased drinking by the young."

The influence of prohibition upon public officials as well as its international aspect and its action with regard to reported demoralization of judicial and police bodies would also be considered by the commission.

"I am for your bill," Upshaw told Coller. "I do not fear a fair and full inquiry into this subject or into any other cause I have ever championed."

HOME TALENT WELL RECEIVED

Brainerd Ladies Band Plays Two Numbers For Ladies Musical Club

Other Numbers Given by Brainerd Soloists Are Reviewed

The annual home talent program of the Ladies' Musical club was opened with two numbers by the Brainerd Ladies' band.

The success which the band has met during its brief period of organization reflects great credit upon both its conductor and individual members.

It is easy enough in the first flush of enthusiasm to undertake an enterprise as atractive as band work appears to be but it requires courage to see it through to success. Hours of uninteresting hard work are required and the discouragement met with in training new players to take the places of those who of necessity must withdraw.

There has been no wavering on the party of any and their reward is evident in the results attained in the year they have been under organization. Some of those who appeared with the band Saturday have been members only two months.

Aside from individual sincerity of purpose one does not have to look far for the explanation for their success. Their director, Mrs. Ziebell, knows how to direct. When she wields the baton there is no describing of circles. Her up beat is up. As the result there is a precision of attack on the part of her band and in playing an overture there is no uncertainty in the change of rythms.

It is difficult to play brass and wood winds in tune. The fidelity to pitch was commendable. It is difficult for an amateur band to play accompaniments. The accompaniment work done in the second number the "Sax Queen" was significant of the band's progress towards its ultimate aim of finished and artistic work.

There are few in Brainerd of musical talent who can claim greater gifts than A. C. Mraz. His duet with Mrs. Krekelberg was a contribution to the program that was a pleasing variation as ensemble work is comparatively rare in local musical efforts. Mrs. Krekelberg's voice was equal to the task of holding its own and blending with the resonance of Mr. Mraz's. Mrs. Krekelberg's poise and the general air of preparedness were also pleasing.

This too was felt in Miss O'Brien's rendition of Kreisler's "Caprice Viennesse." This selection presents technical difficulties which test any pianist's ability. Miss O'Brien's interpretation was not hampered by lack of facility to meet them.

The cordiality of applause attested to the success with which Miss Geraldine Kiebler's numbers were presented. Both her "Hungarian Love Song" and "Old Kentucky Home" were charming choices and the violin is always cordially received when played with the tone Miss Kiebler is able to secure.

When Mrs. Clark sings she shows an appreciation of comparative values and has a happy faculty of bridging the gap between herself as the performer and her audience.

Mrs. Egan's voice is beautiful and her singing showed she knew how to use it. Hers was one of the loveliest contributions.

Dr. Badeaux's song "The Three Comrades" from point of view of composition was perhaps the biggest number of the afternoon. When he sings he shows a concept of the composition as a whole and attacks it with an artist's purpose and ability to unfold its meaning. As a pleasing contrast to the dramatic fervor of the Hans Hermann number he sang Melisande, the quiet beauty and continuity of thought of which are always pleasing.

Mrs. Wieland played all the accompaniments which was no small task either for the afternon or when consideration is given to the amount of time required of her by the soloists in preparation of so much work. Sympathy and confidence of attack are a rare combination. Having both these attributes make Mrs. Wieland a most sought for assistant.

The flutter of applause which greeted the announcement of Mrs. Knutson's organ number bespoke the treat her appearance on the program was to be. Her rendition was a fitting climax for the afternoon's program which contained so many points of interest and moments of pleasure.

Birthday Surprise Party

Mrs. P. J. Casey was pleasantly surprised at her home at 710 North Broadway, by about forty friends who gathered in honor of her birthday.

The evening was spent in dancing, after which delicious refreshments were served. Mrs. Casey received many gifts of silver and other beautiful presents.

LENTEN SEASON OBSERVANCES

Special Services For Season Will be Held at St. Francis Catholic Church

LENTEN LAWS GIVEN

Special Speaker From Out of City Will Speak at Wednesday Night Services

The St. Francis Catholic church will observe the Lenten season with special services. The order of exercises as given by Rev. James Hogan, pastor of the church, is as follows:

Sundays, at each of the three Masses: 1. The prayer and sweat of blood of our Saviour in Gethsemane; 2. The scourging at the pillar; 3. The crowning with thorns; 4. The death on Calvary; 5. The sorrows of the Blessed Virgin.

Wednesdays: 1. Penance; 2. The Blessed Eucharist as a sacrifice; 3. The Blessed Eucharist as a sacrament of the new law; 4. The Blessed Eucharist as Holy Communion; 5. Frequent communion; 6. Daily Communion.

Fridays: The devout way of the Cross—the stations.

Sunday evenings: The home; the means of sanctifying the home presented by Christianity.

To all of these instructions the recitation of The Rosary and the solemn service of benediction will be added.

A speaker, different on each occasion, is engaged from outside Brainerd to have charge of the Wednesday evening exercises.

The church of St. Francis is always open to all, and all are cordially invited.

The Lenten regulations for the year 1926, as given out by Thomas A. Welch, Bishop of Duluth, are given herewith:

The law of abstinence binds all those over the age of seven. The law of fasting applies to all who are over twenty-one years of age and have not yet entered upon their sixtieth year, if they be not exempted by reason of their health or occupation.

On Wednesdays and Fridays and on Ember Saturday abstinence is prescribed. On these days flesh meat is not allowed, nor broth or soup made from meat.

"On fast days, those bound to fast are allowed one full meal, at or after mid-day. In addition, they are allowed two light meals, one of about eight ounces, at which butter, cheese, eggs, or fish may be taken in small quantities; the other of two or three ounces, at which a little butter may be taken."

Except on abstinence days, both meat and fish are allowed at the chief meal.

By a special Indult granted to the Bishops of the United States, working people who cannot easily observe the common law of the church may eat meat on all days of fast and abstinence throughout the year including the Lenten season, except Fridays, Ash Wednesday, the Wednesday in Holy Week, Good Friday, the forenoon of Holy Saturday and Christmas Eve. This dispensation includes not only the individual working man in whose favor it is granted but all members of his family as well.

The Lenten Fast, which does not include the Sundays, ends at noon on Holy Saturday.

By special Indult the time for complying with the precept of Paschal Communion extends from the first Sunday in Lent to Trinity Sunday, inclusive.

GOOD ROADS AND DAIRYING

WALTER M. MURPHY addressed the recent Minnesota State Dairymen's convention at Brainerd on the subject of "Good Roads in Connection with the Dairying Industry in Crow Wing County." The point brought out by Mr. Murphy is that good roads are a necessity, that dairying, especially the marketing of sweet cream, is impossible without good roads to hurry such product to the creamery. His argument advanced is a most convincing one and in "Marl's" inimitable style proclaims many a truth:

"In the subject that has been assigned to me I am conversant with one end of it thoroughly, and if an old great uncle of mine had had his way, I would have known more about the other. As a lad I was not a bit industrious and this aged relative of mine thought it was wrong to let a boy grow up in that way so he undertook to correct this wrong upbringing and teach me something useful, namely taking care of a cow.

"He sat down on the milking stool and showed me how to milk, then he set me down. My efforts to get the milk into the pail were not successful and one stream hit him in the eye which was tender from an old war wound. He feelingly jumped around, swore frightfully, and said, 'Boy, you will never learn to milk,' and he was right.

"I was located in Steele county a few years ago and there every few miles is a creamery and thirty-five years ago Steele county roads were the best in the state so it was safe to assume that good roads and creameries go hand in hand.

"Here in Crow Wing county we have gone them one better. We have the unique distinction, brought about by the county commissioners, of having a system of connecting roads known as the White Line System which connect up the various townships giving them all access to the State and Trunk Highways. The markings for these roads consist of a black board 18 inches square with a 2 inch white strip near the upper edge with the number of the road beneath. These are the real milk and cream routes, the white strip denoting milk.

"Since the good road-building program in Crow Wing county went into effect some ten years ago, new creameries have sprung up, so that now by the use of truck and car not only are milk and cream being hauled to the creameries in Crow Wing county by Crow Wing county farmers but by farmers from adjoining counties as well. Crosby and Pequot creameries are notable examples. In both of these the output has more than doubled during the past season.

"The cow was the first road engineer and pioneer in city planning. You have but to look at the streets of Boston in the east, St. Paul in the west, the trails through the Bad Lands of Dakota, to prove this statement. So we with our revised road system are but paying back in the building of creameries and connecting them up with good roads. It is no uncommon sight these days to see the cow riding with other members of her family in trucks, or some gasoline driven vehicle. I look in our future development for the cow to be rolled up before the mansion and milked in the presence of the householder.

"Will say in closing there is nothing new under the sun for the same thing is occurring in Algiers, only in place of the cow it's the goat.

THE MAIL ORDER MOTH AND THE FLAME

THE home buyer, who is he?

He is the man to whom "home" means something. He is the established, respected citizen. He is the man who lives a settled, comfortable life in his own cozy house or flat.

The home buyer is one of the honored, substantial citizens of our community. He brings up his children here, builds up his business here. The unsettled, discontented individual is likely to be the out-of-town buyer. He purchases elsewhere because his home town means nothing to him. He is a drifter through life, a moth attracted by any far-away flame.

He has no prosperity of his own because he has not joined forces with prosperity. He has not attracted himself to any of the things that bring wealth and contentment. He has not attempted to identify himself closely with his town, to build up his credit, to own property, to establish a growing security.

He seeks to save a few pennies under the lure of out-of-town advertising, only to find that his wings are singed in the blaze that tempted him. He misses completely the point of true economy—that is, to purchase goods only in person, after first-hand examination.

The home buyer, on the other hand, is the man who knows what he wants, and gets it. He is the man who doesn't wait for unreliable mail deliveries. He gets what he wants and when he wants it.

The home buyer is known and liked by the city's merchants. They put themselves out to serve him. They deliver goods for him in an emergency, at odd hours, with specified promptness. He benefits by corrections and alterations, by special prices, and bargains of all kinds.

The home buyer is the thrifty man, the man who stands by his home town, grows with his home town, thrives as his home town prospers.

Which are you? The mail order moth, the out-of-town shopper, or the substantial, successful, satisfied home buyer?

THE Pillager Herald carries this comment: "THE BRAINERD DISPATCH says Pine River and Pillager are organizing co-operative creameries. Just as soon as the annual statement of our creamery is out, we are going to send THE DISPATCH a copy." THE DISPATCH is glad at all times to give publicity to any creamery development in our vicinity. A well patronized creamery is better than an iron or gold mine. Both of the latter will "play out" in time, but a creamery, properly conducted, brings prosperity to the farmers and the community in which it is located, and is a permanent institution.

AITKIN'S February term of the district court opened Tuesday, Feb. 16, and Judge W. S. McClenahan of Brainerd will preside. The calendar carries 39 civil and 14 criminal cases.

THE Ironton commercial club had its meeting and supper at the Spina hotel. Seven new members were gained.

THE country is believed to be facing a serious hog shortage.

"SOME WILD NOTIONS I HAVE KNOWN"

By the REV. ROY L. SMITH, D. D.
Pastor Simpson M. E. Church, Minneapolis

"DEAD MEN TELL NO TALES"

Some of the most moving tales of history are those told by dead men.

John Brown, moving through Kansas and on to Harper's Ferry, was only a fanatical disturber but when he had been put to death his blood cried out from the ground and fanned the North into a passion for human freedom.

Socrates drinking the hemlock was setting stage for the most persuasive teaching he ever did.

John Huss dared to advocate the freedom of the soul and the forces of ignorance and selfish power piled the burning fagots high about him. But that flame kindled the fires to revolt around the world and the spirit of John Huss went up from the burning to lead the reformation everywhere.

The martyr Stephen, dying under the stones hurled at him by those who piled their clothes at the feet of the young man Saul, looked up steadfastly into Heaven with a face shining like an angel's and in his death became the goad that drove Saul into the Christian Church and out into the world as its greatest apostle.

Lincoln, in life was the target for scorn, abuse, ridicule, vilification, intrigue and misrepresentation. He sleeps in Springfield, Illinois, and in death he speaks around the world—our most influential American.

John Knox, John Wycliff, Savanarola, Tuissant L'Overture, Joan of Arc and "thousands of humble and nameless" died rather than betray the faith and their voices will echo in clarion calls to the faithful through the ages.

Jesus of Nazareth, crucified on the hill called "A Skull," so glorified the cross that beautiful women have used it ever since as an ornament to enhance their beauty, and in His death he has conquered the world.

What inspiring tales some dead men tell!

MISSIONARY SOCIETY MEETS

Women of First Congregational Church Have Fine Study of "Prayer And Missions"

The missionary society of the First Congregational church met at the home of Mrs. W. A. M. Johnstone, Friday afternoon, and a very interesting and profitable time was spent.

Mrs. Folsom had charge of the usual round of business and presided with dignity and grace. During this period all joined in singing, "Sing them over again to me," with Mrs. Johnstone at the piano.

The meeting was then turned over to Mrs. G. S. Swanson who had charge of the study, "Prayer in the life of Oriental Christians," from Chapter V of "Prayer and Missions" and in presenting the topic of the "Oriental church a praying church," she showed that the prayer practice of Oriental Christians is a challenge to us of the west.

Prayer experiences among the Indian Christians and answered prayer in China were noted by members present and Mrs. Irma C. Hartley in giving the account of General Feng, in offering us a prayer for rain stated that, "Exactly two hours after the meeting there was a great rain, which was indeed a shower of blessing that the people desired." Mrs. Hartley also gave a talk on Marshal Feng in the home, and in describing his wife showed that "Mrs. Feng, also a Christian," is in full sympathy with the ideals of her husband and is radiantly happy in helping in his schools and philanthropic work.

Mrs. Evans presented the helpful little poem, "Two of us," and Mrs. Olmsted in giving current events told of the many countries of the East where Islam abounds.

Mrs. Geist, from a picture of Chinese and Manchu girls, sent by Miss Hartwell of Foochow, China, told of their aspirations and success in the Christian and educational realm, thus proving the importance of missionary effort as carried on by the missionaries.

The program closed with Mrs. Swanson calling attention to the "Haystack prayer-meeting," which led to the formation of the American board, 1810, the first organization for foreign missionary work, and was followed, more than half a century later, in the origin of the Woman's Board of Missions for foreign work, both being Congregational. Stress was placed upon Mrs. Albert Bowker, whose prayer life was remarkable and who became the first president of not only the Woman's Board of Missions but of the denominational women's boards.

Mrs. Cody who was present gave a very interesting talk on the Hopi and Navajo Indians, as interviewed by her and Mr. Cody during a summer auto trip to the coast and told of the difference between the Christian and non-Christian homes.

A social hour followed with appetizing refreshments served by the hostess and which testified to valentine cheer but were not after the order of St. Valentine of long ago who was noted for doing "little things," as these were they of great things.

The largest number of members and visitors were present and the largest collection was received since the thank-offering meeting of September.

HEDDA HOYT TALKS ABOUT THINGS THAT INTEREST THE BUSY WOMAN OF 1926

HOUSE DRESSES

By HEDDA HOYT
(Written for the United Press)

New York, Feb. 17.—Some women wear worn out frocks about the house while doing the morning work while others prefer crisp little house dresses of wash type made in the latest fashion. Most of them are made lose enough for working purposes but all have sports lines so that one looks as though one had just stepped off a tennis court.

One of the prettiest of the new spring work frocks is made of red and white checked gingham in straight lines with a detachable apron front which buttons onto the frock. The idea of the apron front is to protect the dress from becoming soiled. One can remove the apron when it is soiled and thus save a little on laundry bills. Apron, hem-border and sleeves are piped in red gingham.

Some of the new models button down the front as does the artist's smock. These have tailored reveres, long sleeves and hip pockets. The regulation artist's smock, by the way, is in itself a very sensible thing for housewear. One never looks untidy in a smock. Old blue and burnt orange are perhaps the most effective smock shades.

Figured print dresses have a cheery effect. Many house-dresses are either entirely made of print or trimmed in print. Recently I saw a flower-printed jumper with a plain colored skirt in a house-dress showing of a department store. To my mind, it was ideal for the woman who wants to look dressed at all hours of the day. The jumper had a tan background with green leaves and dull pink roses forming the design. It was slightly longer than hip-length. The accompanying skirt, which was really a continuation of the jumper since it was sewed to it, was light brown cotton rep. While the material was cotton, the dress was quite as pretty as some of the figured afternoon frocks one sees in the new spring displays.

PRESBYTERIANS 12, FIRST BAPTISTS 7, IN A FAST GAME

ANDERSON AND CREGER STAR IN VICTORY TO BREAK TIE FOR CELLAR

TEAM COMES FROM BEHIND IN SECOND HALF TO SCORE VICTORY

The Presbyterian Juniors broke the triple tie for cellar position in the younger division, by downing the First Baptists after the latter had gained a lead of 5 to 0 in the first half. Coming back on the floor with a vim and dash, the Calvinists scored six field goals in rapid succession, while the best the Baptists could do was one. The final score was 12 to 7.

Anderson played a fine game, finally coming to the fore in scoring to grab the honors with three goals. Creger scored two. Patterson failed to score, but Noakes, guard, came up to ring one in the last half. Hohman played a pretty game at guard.

For the losers, Billy Smith did the heavy work. He flashed through for two goals in the first half. Storm, center, did the rest of the counting with a free throw and a field goal.

The victory puts the Presbyterians in third place, with one tie game to play off, against the Evangelicals.

The Intermediate game last night between the Evangelicals and the Swedish Baptists was forfeited by the latter.

JUDGE DELAYS TAKING ACTION AT TIAJUANA

WILL TAKE ANOTHER WEEK BEFORE DECISION IN CASES OF 7 MEN

GROUP CHARGED WITH ATTACKING PETEET GIRLS AND CAUSING 4 SUICIDES

Tiajuana, Feb. 17.—(UP)—Delay was encountered today in bringing to the bar the men held responsible for the "shame suicide" of the T. M. Peteet family of four.

Criminal Judge Sam Urias today announced that he will need another week before he can reach a decision in the cases of the seven men, including Chief of Police Llanos, charged with attacking the Peteet girls and causing the family's suicide.

Whether Chief Llanos and Luis Amador, saloon proprietor and the two most prominent men charged with the crime, will be cleared, was uncertain.

The last of next week Judge Urias said he will either pronounce sentence or call a Mexican jury to sit in the case.

Washington Feb. 17.—Representative Swing, California, today asked the state department to negotiate a treaty with Mexico establishing a 50 mile zone along the border in Mexico in which all saloons and other questionable resorts will be investigated.

Swing also asked Secretary Kellogg if it would be possible to close the Mexican border during certain hours of the night. He was referred to the treasury department on this subject.

TO CAPITALIZE ON HIS LEGS

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Feb. 17.—After spending ten years or more running for medals and glory, Joie Ray, one of America's greatest middle distance runners, says the time has arrived for him to go out and make some money.

His decision to become a professional and capitalize on his legs brings up the question—how much can he make out of professional running and what possibilities as a profession has foot racing?

After lengthy consideration the answer would seem to be that Ray or no other track athlete can clean up as a professional because track and field sports do not lend themselves to professionalism.

Years ago, before it fell into general abuse, professional foot racing was a profitable occupation but the public lost faith in the game and in the competitors when it developed that most of the races were not on the level.

When Ray was in his prime he might have made some money as a professional but he is reaching the end of his career now and he has been pushed into the background by Paavo Nurmi.

Nurmi and Willie Ritola, the only runner in the world who seems to have speed approaching Nurmi's, might stir up enough interest in a series of races to attract the public but it has been shown so many times that Ray is not in Nurmi's class that the element of contest would be lacking in a series of Nurmi-Ray races.

If Ray had a tremendous international reputation and if he had never been seen outside of the United States, he might build up some business in Europe. He has been seen many times in foreign countries, however, and his showing in the Antwerp and Paris Olympic games was so ordinary that he is classed just as that on the other side.

With the exception of tennis and track and field sports, every popular game seems to have possibilities as a profession.

Baseball and boxing are the leading professional sports now and great strides have been made by golf and basketball. But tennis and foot racing lack the number of necessary competitors and they do not appeal to the type of sportsmen that support the other professional sports.

STRIKING AT HEART OF BOOTLEG TRAFFIC IN U. S.

TREASURY AGENTS PREPARING WARRANTS FOR FORTY IN PHILADELPHIA

CLEVELAND INVESTIGATIONS NOW REACHES MANY CITIES

Cleveland, O., Feb. 17.—(UP) — Striking at the heart of the bootleg alcohol traffic in the United States, treasury agents under George A. Golding today prepared warrants naming 40 additional men in Philadelphia as members of the synthetic gin trust, it was learned at the federal building. Authorities refuse to divulge names of the trust members.

Warrants have already been issued for 10 Philadelphia men, including several known as the "higher ups" in the ring involving the superior industrial alcohol company activities here.

The new warrants are to reach higher into the organization scheme of the trust and name the men who directed the three largest rings in the country from the Pennsylvania city, controlling prices, "fixing" officials and ordering ruthless gang warfare wherever it was expedient.

The men whose names have been brought into the grand jury inquiry in progress here, had complete control of the situation in Philadelphia and are the targets of a special investigation which Governor Pinchot of Pennsylvana has launched.

The investigation has already resulted in the issuance of 61 warraants wth 40 under arrest and with the warrants asked will make a total of 110 persons named in Cleveland, Chicago, Philadelphia, Brooklyn, Pittsburgh, Detroit, Minneapolis, St. Paul, Duluth, Baltimore and Atlantic City.

The grand jury inquiry today was featured by the appearance of Harry Volpe, Providence, R. I., cafe owner, who precipitated the entire investigation last summer by investigating a show down with mysterious "Mr. Myers," the Philadelphia alcohol potentate.

Volpe was expected to tell the grand jury how he bought a car of bootleg alcohol from the Superior Industral company, and after failing to obtain delivery, was told the car was seized at Chicago.

GREAT TRACK AND FIELD MEET FEB. 27

9TH ANNUAL ILLINOIS RELAY CARNIVAL SOON

THE ENTRY LIST BIDS FAIR TO ECLIPSE THAT OF LAST YEAR

MAIN MEET THIS YEAR IS TO BE HELD AT NIGHT

Champaign, Ill., Feb. 17.—(UP)—The ninth annual Illinois Relay Carnival, to be held here Feb. 27, gives indications of being the greatest track and field meet in the history of middle western colleges.

As the meet approached the entry list begins to look as if it will eclipse the record number of entries of last year when 64 leading universities sent 717 athletes for the 19 events.

The main meet this year will be held at night. The headliner on the bill will be the four university relay races. Other night events are 75 yard dash, low and high hurdles, 300 and 1,000 yards runs, 1,500 meters run, high and broad jumps, shot puts and pole vault.

Officials will attempt to run the night card in two hours.

The 75 and 300 yards dashes this year will bring together Roland Locke, Nebraska, who once ran the 100 in 9.6; Farley, Missouri; McAndrews, Wisconsin; Gruenhagen, Michigan; Shock, Illinois; Roberts, Iowa; Rooney, Kansas, and Kennedy, Wisconsin.

Shimek, of Marquette, and Conger of Ames should furnish plenty of thrills to 1,500 meters. Other good mile men entered are Jung, Michigan; Kennedy, Ohio; White and Rue, Illinois; Hunn, Iowa, and Schutt and Chapman Wisconsin.

The 1,000 yard race will bring together Martin of Northwestern, Cusack of Chicago, Freybery of Michigan, Cassidy of Wisconsin, Barbour of Cornell and Fonder of Missouri.

Guthrie of Ohio State, conference champion, will be hard pressed in the hurdles by Werner of Illinois, Ed Weir of Nebraska, Wallace of Illinois, Voelker of Michigan, Barrow of Notre Dame, Stuber of Missouri, Kelly of Northwestern and Benzell of Indiana.

McGinnis, Wisconsin; Wallace, Illinois; Shotola, Marquette; Whitesde, Lombard; Stirling, Michigan, and Threlkreld of Washington, may give the boys something to talk about in the broad and high jump entries.

When Lancaster, Missouri; Herrington, Notre Dame; Barnes, Illinois; Prout, Michigan, and Owenn, Ames, hook up in the pole vault something may be done to present records.

A half dozen who put the shot around the 46 mark will compete in that event. They include Lyon, Illinois; Dauber, Iowa; Richerson, Missouri; Munz, Michigan, and Kuck, Kansas state teachers' college.

Goldstein K. O.'s Pollock

New York—Ruby Goldstein, eastside lightweight, continued his string of recent victories by a knockout over Bill Pollock in a scheduled six round go.

Notre Dame 40, Michigan State 25

East Lansing, Mich.—Notre Dame University defeated the Michigan State basketball team, 40 to 25.

RAINBOWS PLAY LITTLE FALLS HERE THURSDAY

THE LOCAL INDEPENDENTS WILL TANGLE WITH STRONG TEAM FROM FALLS

GAME BOOKED BY WIRE AT LAST MINUTE, PROMISES TO BE FAST

The Rainbows will engage in a fast game with the Little Falls city team tomorrow night at the high school gym here. The game will start at 8 o'clock, and gives promise of being a thriller.

The game was booked at the last minute, late Tuesday, and the team has but a short time in which to sell tickets and advertise the game. The fans have been supporting the Rainbows in their games so well, however, that it is hoped they will come out in full force tomorrow.

This will be the last game at home during the present season, except a return game with the French Athletic club of Duluth, which will be played here on Feb. 27.

The line-up of the Rainbows will include Ziebell and Heikkinen at forward, Beresford at center, and Orth and Dieckhaus at guard. Ericsson, Day and Hagberg will grace the bench until they are thrown into the game for heavy duty. These men are all worthy of representing Brainerd. Ziebell and Beresford were the chief gunners in the Pine River game two weeks ago, getting 6 and 5 baskets respectively. Heikkinen made good in the Duluth game last week, with five goals. Orth and Dieckhaus are known for their splendid guarding. Ericsson is always a fast, shifty player. Day excelled in the Wright game last Thursday, with four field goals in the last half to win the game. Hagberg won the Staples game early in the season with seven baskets in the last half. Bollens is still a casualty, and Larson is on the road.

A preliminary will engage the attention of the early comers. Come out and see this game and support good basketball.

The Brainerd Ladies' Band will play at the game. They have generously contributed to the basketball playing of the Rainbows before, and will be on hand tomorrow night to spur them on to victory.

Advice from Little Falls indicates that the team from that city is loading up for the game, and is coming here for revenge for the defeat of their Blackhawks three weeks ago.

The preliminary game will be between the Flying Aces and some other strong team.

Tickets are going fast, at the latest report, and a good crowd seems intent on seeing the game.

LOOK for the silver lining in every P. A. smoke-cloud. Notice how the little old world takes on a rosier tint when you pick P. A. for a pal. For a fact, Men, Prince Albert holds options on jimmy-pipe joy in every land. It's got a half-nelson on pipe-pleasure, and no mistake.

There's no deep, dark secret about the why of all this . . . P.A. is great tobacco. Time-tested. Tongue-tested. Mild as a May morning, cool as a breeze off the water, P. A. can't tamper with your tongue or pester your palate. (The Prince Albert process cuts out bite and parch.)

When that cool, fragrant smoke percolates up the pipe-stem, troubles take to the tall timber. Pipe-peeves vanish in a P. A. smoke-screen. You're sitting on top of the world . . . and the view is simply grand. Just never was a tobacco like good old P. A.

GIRL VICTIM OF SHOOTING ACCIDENT

Miss Dorothy Sagli, Shot in Temple by 22-Caliber Bullet at 2 O'clock Tuesday

SHE WILL RECOVER

Adopted Boy of Family Takes Pistol Out to Clean It, Not Knowing it Was Loaded

Miss Dorothy Sagli, living 6 miles east of the city, was accidentally shot in the temple by a 22-caliber bullet at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The pistol was being taken out of a holster by Res Holmgren, who lives at the Sagli farm. The hammer of the pistol caught and flew back, the bullet entering the head of the girl at the temple. She was taken to St. Joseph's hospital, where she was operated on this morning.

The victim of the accident is 20 years of age, and is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Sagli, old settlers in this vicinity. The accident occurred in the farmhouse, after the family had finished their dinner.

Res Holmgren, who had the pistol, has lived with the family since early boyhood. He is 16 years of age. He states that he did not know the pistol was loaded at the time of the accident, but was taking it out to clean it.

Dr. E. F. Jamieson this morning probed for the bullet, and removed it. It had followed a course through the temple, and nearly penetrated to the brain. Miss Sagli is resting easily following the operation, and will be able to leave the hospital, if no complications set in, within a few days, according to Mr. Jamieson.

ROTARIANS HEAR UNIVERSITY DEAN

E. E. Nicholson, Dean of Student Affairs, Declares Average Student Serious-Minded

Says 66 Per Cent of Men, 40 Per Cent Women at University Are at Least Part Self Supporting

E. E. Nicholson, Dean of Student Affairs at the University of Minnesota, declared Tuesday in an address before the Rotary club that the average student at the university is serious-minded. He answered some of the questions that parents are asking concerning the students at our state university, among them these: "Is our university a rich man's institution? Are the students there engaged in a mad whirl of social life and of dissipation?"

The speaker stated that 66 per cent of the men students are at least partly self supporting, 40 per cent being entirely selfsupporting. Of the women students, 40 per cent are earning at least part of their way, while 18 per cent earn all their own way. The speaker called attention to these facts in refutation of the charge that the university is a rich man's school.

"About 500 students may be classed as being madly engaged in the social whirl. The others get a portion of social life, and it is a part of the problem confronting the upperclassmen and officials to see that all students feel themselves to be surrounded by friends. Many upperclassmen are doing this work in the same spirit of service as causes a Rotarian to do community work."

Two-hundred students act as members of the various student councils, much of the work of the councils being done through committees, with perhaps 700 to 1,000 students acting at various times on these committees.

Among the publications of the university, said the speaker, are the daily newspaper, the annual yearbook, and a humorous magazine, published monthly. These publications are handled by the students themselves, finances, editorial policy and management all being controlled by students. "The Minnesota Daily has a budget of about $30,000 a year, every penny of which is accounted for to the board of student publications. The Gopher has a budget of about $25,000, similarly accountable. The magazine handles about $8,000 to $10,000 yearly, with a determined policy of cleaning up indebtedness incurred several years ago. Those handling the moneys do so with the idea that they are handling the students' money, and try to be trustworthy."

According to the dean, the average student who is engaged in these activities is actuated by the idea that he is doing the work with the grace and permission of the community. "The university today is turning out students trained along the lines of constructive leadership, as well as along the lines of being intelligent followers when occasion demands."

Dean Nicholson is a member of the Rotary club of Minneapolis. He spoke Monday night before the Rotary club at Staples, at their Ladies' night program. "Revy" W. H. Johnson of the Staples club brought him to Brainerd for the meeting here.

Other visitors at the meeting yesterday were J. B. Neich, master mechanic of the N. P. Ry. Co., and C. E. Allen, general master mechanic for the N. P., both of whom were guests of J. P. Anderson.

In the absence of President John F. Woodhead, Walter F. Wieland presided over yesterday's session. W. C. Cobb acted as fellowship chairman, and followed the usual procedure as closely as he remembered it in introducing the visitors.

Rev. Olmsted gave a short inspiring talk on the fifth object of Rotary, the recognition of the worthiness of each vocation, and the dignifying by Rotarians of their own callings.

Secretary Wm. Spencer reported that several world-touring members were making up attendance at southern points. He also reported the appointment of Henry Hoffman as the On-to-Grand Forks chairman.

A Great Year ~ A Great Car ~ and Lower Prices

1925 was the greatest year in Dodge Brothers history.

More than a quarter of a million Dodge Brothers Motor Cars were built and sold, yet demand was far in excess of production—and continues to mount.

To meet this world-wide need for a smart and dependable motor car, Dodge Brothers, Inc. have recently completed a $10,000,000 program of expansion, vastly increasing production and lowering the cost of manufacture.

Remarkable new machine equipment has also been installed—further reducing costs and perfecting quality.

As a result Dodge Brothers, Inc. were enabled on January 7th, to announce a schedule of prices that has revolutionized all previous standards of motor car value.

Prices all the more impressive because they apply to a dependable and trusted product made still better in many vital respects—

Engine operation incredibly smooth and quiet.

Instant engine response and elasticity.

Stylish new bodies finished in rich and distinctive colors.

Exceptional driving vision.

And the most important advance in steel body construction since Dodge Brothers pioneered in building the first all-steel body.

MARION TALLEY, 19, FULL FLEDGED PRIMA DONNA

EPITOME OF A FAIRY TALE BECOMES THE REAL TRUTH

APPEARS AS GILDA IN THE OPERA, "RIGOLETTO," IN THE METROPOLITAN

By PAUL W. WHITE
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, Feb. 17.—At an age when most operatic students are practicing scale exercises none too successfully, 19 year old Marion Talley tonight will emerge a full fledged prima donna, the epitome of a fairy tale that came true.

Pink and white, plump and blue eyed Marion will appear as Gilda in "Rigoletto" before what probably will be the most expectant audience ever to gather in the Metropolitan opera house since the famous Caruso first nights.

Musical New York and Kansas City, Marion's home town, are on tip toes. Besides the romance of youths success there have come rumors from within the Met's rehearsal rooms which have shot up the price of tickets to $50 and $100, and unobtainable even at that figure.

For instance a week ago Lucresia Bori, forced to walk in satin slippers through the snow of 40th Street, was denied admission to the opera house because "Miss Talley is singing." Then, there is the rumor that Frances Alda, after hearing the new voice, buried her head and exclaimed:

"It is not possible that anyone can sing like that."

The free list has been suspended for tonight. Not even members of the opera company, outside the supporting cast, will be permitted to stand within the auditorium.

In various hotels about the city are about 200 Kansas Citians, who have arrived for the debut. They are not permitted to see Marion during the day, but they will be on hand for the performance and afterward will go back stage to a reception that for sheer noise no doubt will constitute Missouri's major vocalistic triumph, outside the field of mule driving.

New Yellowstone Planned

Plans for developing the system of parks in Denver, Colo., are so ambitious that if they are carried out, the city maintains, it will have something on a par with the Yellowstone National park. The board has at its disposal 470,000 acres of parks extending from the foothills of the continental divide and between the Platte river and Clear creek to work with. The tract is 30 miles long and 25 miles wide, and includes mountains, game reserves, lakes and highways. The federal government will be asked to aid in some respects. Herds of wild animals and large fish hatcheries will be included.

Proper Fur Treatment

Beginners lose thousands of dollars every year through wrong methods of taking care of animal pelts, says Capper's Weekly. To bring top market prices, skinning, stretching and drying must be done just right, and it pays to learn how before mutilating a valuable skin. Skins of animals like mink, weasel, possum, skunk, civit, muskrat and wolf should be cased, that is, taken off whole. With raccoon, badger, beaver, bear and cougar open skinning is best—ripping the skin down the belly before taking it off. Every bit of flesh and fat should be cut from the skins, being careful to avoid cutting the pelt.

Old Swiss Cheeses

A peculiar bridal or marriage custom which prevails in some parts of Switzerland is presenting the couple with a "register cheese." On this cheese dates of the marriage, births and deaths are recorded. Many persons own cheese records that are 200 years old. A country squire living near Gessenay has one dated 1660.

POLICE FORCE COLLEGE GRADS FOR EVANSTON

Evanston, Ill., Feb. 17.—(UP)—A police force of college graduates is wanted by Chief of Police Wiltberger of Evanston, who has made overtures to seniors on the campus of Northwestern University. Himself college trained and believing that stars of the gridiron and class room were best qualified for crook catching, Chief Wiltberger has asked university authorities to encourage students to participate in a civil service examination this month.

One of the students to whom Wiltberger has made overtures is Tim Lowry, captain of Northwestern's 1925 football team. Lowry is said to be considering the police position.

SAYS SHE WON'T BURY HIM — DOUBLE KILLING AT OMAHA

Omaha, Neb., Feb. 17.—(UP)—The bodies of Betty Flesher, pretty 25 year old divorcee, and Simon R. Ward, 32, a chauffeur, were found on a lonely road on the outskirts of Omaha today. Both had been shot through the head. A revolver was clutched in Ward's right hand.

Ward who was infatuated with the woman, had hired the automobile 24 hours before the bodies were found. A farmer reported hearing two shots being fired at about 2 A. M. today.

Ward's wife refused to have anything to do with the case.

"He's better off dead," Mrs. Ward said. "He was nothing but an expense to me. I won't bury him."

Wealthy alumni of six eastern universities are said to be backing the enterprise, which will have as its goal the claiming of the supposed polar continent for the United States. A trip to the north pole also may be attempted.

Present plans for the departure call for the sailing from Seattle, Wash., on June 8. Three planes will establish a main base at Point Barrow early in July.

BLOODY HATCHET THOUGHT CLUE TO FIENDISH MURDER

R. C. EMERSON, WEALTHY ST. PAUL BROKER, HAS DISAPPEARED

DOOR OF OFFICE OPEN, ROOM GIVES EVIDENCE OF DESPERATE FIGHT

St. Paul, Feb. 17. — (UP) — A bloody hatchet found in the office of R. C. Emerson, wealthy broker, today, started authorities on the trail of what is believed a fiendish murder with robbery the motive.

Emerson left his home early last night. A patrolman found the door of his office open and investigation revealed evidences of a desperate fight, robbery and apparently murder.

The broker's hat and watch were on the floor near a hatchet bearing bloodstains. The safe had been opened. Emerson's automobile in which he had driven from his home was gone.

Emerson was 36 years old and had a wife and two children. Neither Mrs. Emerson nor business associates were able to throw any light on the supposed murder victim's movements last night.

Police officials throughout the northwest have been notified to be on the watch for everyone answering Emerson's description or driving his automobile. But this afternoon local police admitted they were as far from solution of the mystery as when the first evidence was discovered.

Three theories were advanced:

1 The missing man was attacked and seriously injured or murdered by an assailant or assailants who entered his offices last night and removed Emerson in his own automobile.

2. The broker is a victim of asphasia induced by injury in his head suffered in a fall several days ago.

3. Emerson left of his own volition.

The first explanation is given the most credence by officials. Mrs. Emerson said there would have been no motive for her husband to leave voluntarily and he had shown no signs of serious consequences from his head injury.

SPECULATIVE SENTIMENT APPREHENSIVE

New York, Feb. 17.—(UP)—Speculative sentiment was in an apprehensive state today, due to the feeling prevailing in trading circles that the professional operators planned activities on the down side. This nervousness was intensified by expectation of unfavorable 1925 reports from various industrial corporations, by the poor comparison, which the latest railroad traffic statistics made with last year and by the pessimism, which marked the weekly description of conditions in the street trade.

These factors were reflected in heavy selling in various sections of the list with particular weakness in the equipment group where the leaders broke to new low ground on the reaction.

However, the presence of an overcrowded short interest and the indications of good buying in the issues with powerful banking sponsorship, including Consolidated Gas, United States Steel, General Motors, General Electric, American Can and Air Reduction, prevented reactionary tendencies from gaining headway in the main body of stock.

Price movements throughout the afternoon were mainly upward with conscious strength in Hudson Motors and Montgomery Ward.

The market closed irregular.

Showing at the Lyceum last time tonight.

Police Officials Aid In Film Production

Authenticity of detail in the important police sequences of "My Lady's Lips," the picture showing at the Lyceum on Thursday and Friday is assured in the expert collaboration employed by John Goodrich, the author of the film play, in preparing his script.

Police Chief Gus Vollmer of Berkeley, Cal., one of the most famous police heads in America, contributed a great deal of valuable information in outlining the action for these important scenes.

Syd Chaplin Feature And Amundsen's Polar Flight Pictures on Same Program at Park

Well, he's gone and done it again. Only more so. We didn't think Syd Chaplin could be funnier than he was in "Charley's Aunt." But then we hadn't seen him in "The Man on the Box." And—Man dear!—There's only one thing to do. Give yourself a treat. You've just gotta see it!

Amundsen's Polar Flight

What is probably the most daring adventure into an unknown region since Columbus put out from the shores of Spain has been recorded by a motion picture camera. This was the Amundsen-Ellsworth Expedition, the first attempt to fly over the North Pole by airplane. An authentic log was kept with the camera. This outstanding thriller, a Pathe release, in three reels is being presented this Friday, Saturday and Sunday at the New Park theatre in conjunction with "The Man on the Box."
